An Amazing Summer Program of hands-on learning, all under the direction of:

Susan Collard,

Artistic director and Founder of Asheville Contemporary Dance Theatre.

Susan has been dancing all her life. She grew up studying classical ballet and was introduced to modern dance at the age of 20 through a graduate student at Temple University, Philadelphia, PA. She transitioned into modern dance after many seasons of study at the American Dance Festival, Durham, NC and The Colorado Dance Festival, Boulder, CO.

She has traveled extensively deriving her choreographic inspiration from diverse cultural experiences. She has toured with her company, "Asheville Contemporary Dance Theatre" to Cuba, France, Mexico, Canada and Colombia; creating international exchanges, with dance artists from these countries.

Susan has become recognized for her choreography inspired by female artists and international collaborations. She has choreographed for film and theatre and is currently working with international artists through "White Dog Dance Projects"

She is the founder/director of the "New Studio of Dance ACDT", creator of the "Asheville Fringe Arts Festival", "48 hours Dance Project" and Asheville's first black box theatre "The BeBe".

Dance a story, make a costume in the magical world of Dance Theatre under the direction of dancers and actors
in the BeBe Theatre.
